GO BIG RED!!

On October 30, 1979, at 2:30 p.m., the Big Red Band departed from Hereford High School on their way to Kimbrough Memorial Stadium at Canyon, for the 1979 UIL Marching Contest. At precisely 3:20 p.m., the "Pride of Whitface Stadium" took the field and performed one of the most complex drills in their history. The show that had required as much as ten hours of practice each week for three months was over in only ten minutes. As the announcer read "Hereford High . . . Division One," the members thought back to all the work, through good and bad weather, and felt happy about the achievement. The roar of Joy was greater than that of all of the other schools there.

Two HHS Choirs Take Top Honors

(Reprinted from THE HEREFORD BRAND) In a record-breaking show of success, the Hereford High School girls choir and mixed choir each received plaques for "Superior" performances in the annual Six Flags Music Festival at Fort Worth during the first week in May.

It was the first time for both school choirs to be honored with a "Superior" rating in judged competition. According to choir director Bill Devers, the festival judges were liberal with their praise for both choirs.

The judges were Dr. James Ralston from Florida State University, Dr. Joel Stegall from Ithaca College in New York and Gene Brooks, executive secretary of the American Choral Directors Association in Lawton, Okla.

I'd give blood for HHS any old time!

It hurts . . .

Robin and Sylvia in a quiet moment!

A Coke a Day . . .

Such enthusiasm!

The All-American kitchen helper!

I know something you don't!!

I bet you don't!!

I think I need a shave!

Oh yeah!!

Get that camera away from me!

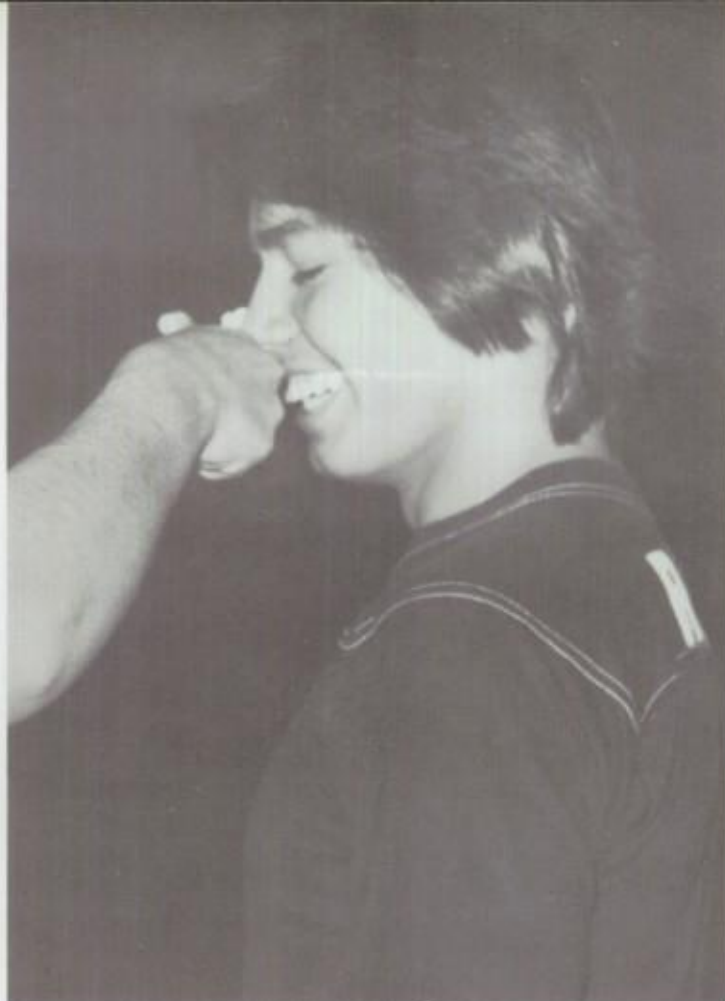

Robin and Gina among the lights!

A little moment of friendship between Joe and Connie.

The Ultimate Bubble!

AHHHCHOOO!!

ATTENTION!

The little drummer boys . . .

Give those girls a hand.

Hereford High's version of SHANANA!

Eat your heart out, guys!

If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times!

Quit Staring!

Are you spying on me?

Dear Abby . . .

My dream-boat just walked by.

I want to play, too!

Melinda, dear, you look divine!

Up, up, and away!

Your place or mine . . .

Oooh! This is bad on the legs . . .

Well, the second little pig made his house of wood . . .

Taking that last fatal step.

May we help you?

Aren't we gorgeous!

One, two, three blow.

Get excited Carl!

Say cheese everyone.

Eat your hearts out girls.

Oh, come on let's BOOGIE!

Well I took off the thing-a-ma-jigg and put it in the . . .

Here I am, come and get me!

Janae, act like you're studying.

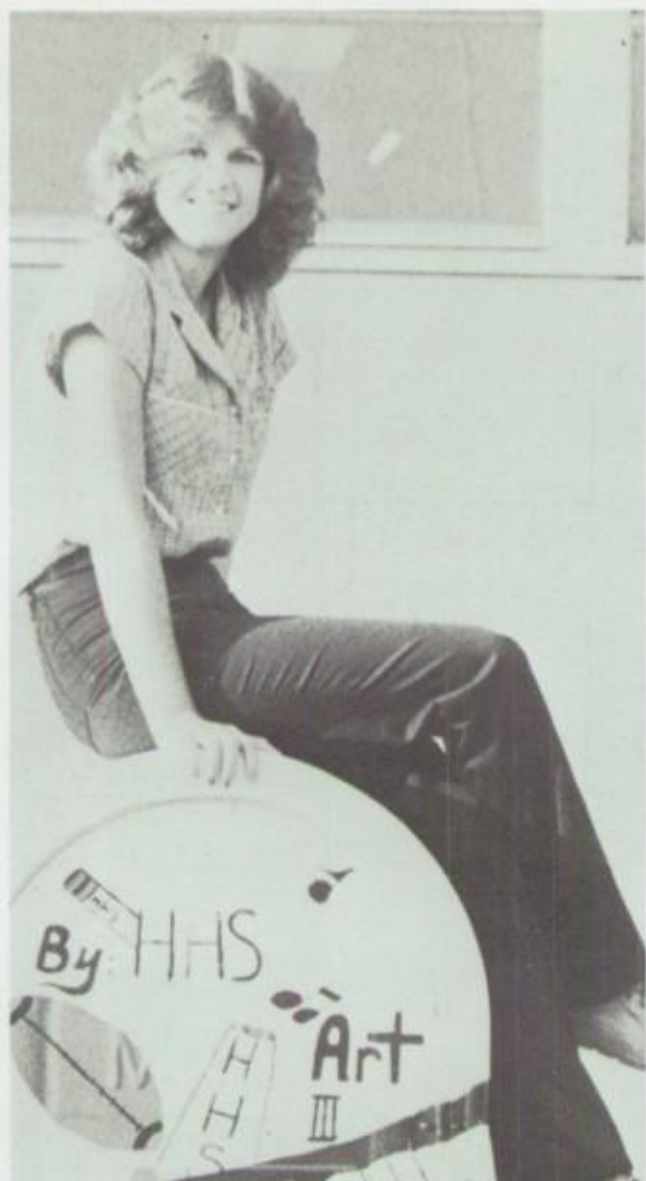

What Foxes!!!

If you think I'm sexy . . .

Hey look! Superman — man-man-man!
